St. Mary's Home / Maison Sainte-Marie (SMH) is a voluntary service licensed under the Child and Family Services Act. SMH has a Residential Program and a Young Parent Outreach Centre. On an annual basis we provide counselling, programs and support services to approximately 450 infants, children, pregnant and parenting teens / young adults up to the age of 25. SMH program objectives include enabling parents to learn positive parenting skills while they obtain counselling to empower them to make healthy decisions for their children and their lives. The specific programs offered cover five strategic points: Health, Parenting, Lifestyle, Independent Living and Education.
